1. When there is a fire alarm, all students and staff are asked to assembly on the grass near the girls' dormitory. Students should stand in groups (Aileron, Amoonguna etc.). I do not expect any more carelessness or stupidity when students are near the glass fire alarms.
2. Visitors may not come to our dances or pictures except by invitation, and with permission (from D.H. Odling-Smee, any houseparent, Duty Officer). Permission must be got on Friday, or before.
3. Students under treatment, especially ear treatment, must see the sister morning and evening. Never miss.
4. All gambling money will be taken and put into the "Students Social Fund".
5. All students who run away will be chased, and later punished.
6. We welcome Mr. Jimmy Janbidjinba Haywood and Mr. Riley Jagumara Martin and their families from Warrabri. They are gardeners and counsellors at Yirara, and students from Warrabri should especially listen to anything they tell them to do.
7. The editor of Tjaru is Miss Lanyon. If you have any stories, or comics or news, please give it to her - any time. This applies to staff as well. Please will students try very hard to understand and remember the Tjaru news. There will not be so many assemblies from now on.
8. Some Anata parents and staff will visit this weekend. Please welcome them and show them round. They may eat and sleep here.

Many Yirara College teams are now playing sport in town competitions.

Two men Volleyball teams play at the Youth Centre each Tuesday night. All games played so far have been very close and the remainder of the competition proves to an exciting one.

The under 12 girls and boys played their first games last Monday evening. Even though the girls team were defeated 22 - 4 they showed good spirit and sportsmanship. With this attitude and hard practice on Thursdays the team will surely improve.

The boys were more successful in their win against satellites 30 - 11. The under 15 girls had a good win 42 - 34 over Rovers on Tuesday night while the under 15 boys scored premiership points when Yaaka forfeited their game. Last Thursday night the girls defeated Roadrunners 21 - 10 and the men defeated Pioneers in a close game. Last night the men defeated Centrals 29 - 17 best players were Martin and Willie. The girls had to forfeit their game.
